

TUKIE FALADE

Tukie Falade joined Peck, Madigan, Jones & Stewart in October 2009. She currently serves as a Research Associate, focusing on Judiciary, Transportation and Appropriations issues.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Falade worked as an Intake Coordinator at the Legal Aid Justice Center in Charlottesville, Virginia, where she managed case files for new clients and worked closely with attorneys to coordinate legal strategies. Ms. Falade also served as a Housing Specialist at the Intercoastal Group where she worked in conjunction with the Maryland Department of Social Services to provide low income families with affordable housing.

Ms. Falade earned a Bachelor of Arts in Foreign Affairs and Spanish from the University of Virginia.